

Planning for and Response to Chemical Contamination of Emergency Departments and Personnel

Richard S. Weisman, Pharm.D, DABAT, FAACT

Professor of Pediatrics and
Associate Dean for Admissions
University of Miami Miller School of Medicine

Dr. Weisman is Associate Dean and Professor of Pediatrics at the University of Miami Miller School of Medicine. He is the Director of the Florida Poison Information Center – Miami at UM/Jackson Memorial Hospital. Dr. Weisman received his undergraduate training in Pharmacy at Temple University and his Doctorate in Clinical Pharmacy from Duquesne University. Dr. Weisman is Board Certified in Toxicology and a Fellow of the American Academy of Clinical Toxicology.

Dr. Weisman has been an editor and author of Goldfrank's Toxicologic Emergencies and has over 75 publications in the field of poison control and toxicology. Dr. Weisman is a Past President of the American Association of Poison Control Centers (AAPCC).

Miracles made daily.

Jackson
MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

