

Role of our RDSTF and Health Care Coalitions in Management of Large Scale Disasters in Miami-Dade County/South Florida

Natasha Strokin

Florida Department of Health
Miami-Dade County

Public Health Preparedness Program Manager &
Government Operations Consultant

Natasha Strokin is the Public Health Preparedness Program Manager for the Florida Department of Health in Miami-Dade County.

Natasha is responsible for overseeing a variety of preparedness initiatives including the Cities Readiness Initiative, Healthcare Preparedness Coalition, Special Needs Sheltering, and the Miami-Dade Medical Reserve Corps. She is responsible for creating and maintaining partnerships with public and private response stakeholders in order to ensure an efficient and coordinated response to catastrophic public health emergencies.

During emergency activations, she also serves as ESF-8 coordinator at the Miami-Dade County Emergency Operations Center. Natasha came to the Miami-Dade County Health Department in 2007.

Miracles made daily.

Jackson
MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

